

Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

It is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation when political partisanship trumps
the public interest
in fair election
federal policy

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It's more important that we see real people from our own communities
and more substantive
news about issues
that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
